Host teacher's signature: Kley R. 2

What was/were the objective(s) of this lesson?

To make the students think critically about the music.

What National Standard(s) do you think was/were addressed in this lesson? (Please be specific (e.g., Anchor Standard 4: Analyze, interpret, and select artistic work for presentation).)

The students were challenged to listen to music and analyze it and interpret what it made them think about.

What Virginia Standard(s) of Learning for Music do you think was/were addressed in this lesson? (Again, please be specific (e.g., K.6: The student will demonstrate a steady beat, using body percussion, instruments, and voice).)

The students will demonstrate cognitive thinking about music that they are listening to, and share a discussion on what they watched.

How did the teacher accomplish her/his objectives?

Challenged them to listen to something different than what they would have listened to.

How did the teacher assess individual students' understanding?

They individually submitted complete sentences of what they thought about different parts of the music.

What does the teacher do that seems to help student learning in this classroom?

Explains how the music devices in the video work.

What does the teacher do that seems to hinder student learning in the classroom?

Some times during discussion the teacher tells them to stop talking when they could be sharing good ideas.

What do students do that seems to help their learning in the classroom?

They asked good questions that make their classmates think critically.

What do students do that seems to hinder their learning in the classroom?

Talking constantly and chime in without raising hands.

What action(s) on the part of the teacher do you think would improve student learning in this classroom?

Maybe not being on the laptops as long because then they get distracted to much on the computer.

What action(s) on the part of the students do you think would improve student learning in this classroom?

Being more hands on with some of the instruments instead of just talking about them.

What other comments/observations do you have?

So much music technology incorporated here at this school, it's amazing.

Please remember that in addition to submitting this form on Canvas, you should write a reflection of approximately 500 words on your blog (under "Leadership") in which you reflect about your experiences and impressions from this visit.
